Gender Equality Awareness Programme

A One Day Gender Equality Awareness Programme was conducted at VIVA Institute of Technology on 19th July, 2018. The resource person for the programme was Dr. Sunita Ogale, Principal, VIVA Institute of Pharmacy.

It was a very informative session. The Speaker discussed, presented and touched upon many topics including, the reasons for gender inequality, the importance of gender equality in the society, etc. She also discussed how there is a difference between gender bashing and being gender sensitive. The examples of many stars from both the genders were also given to stress the point that when the society is sensitive to genders then great things can be achieved.

Overall it was a very informative session attended by more than 50 participants, which included faculties and students of VIVA Institute of Technology.

The session conducted by Dr. Sunita Ogale, Principal, VIVA Institute of Pharmacy, was highly appreciated by all the participants.
