Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering

REPORT

IETE Approved Two Day Workshop

On

"Ethical Hacking and Cyber Security"

10th & 11th September, 2018

Organized by: Prof. Meena Perla
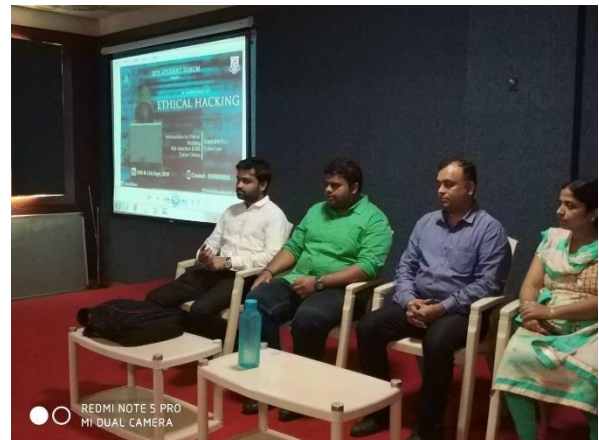

Faculty Co-ordinator

Department of Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering

Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering

On 10th September 2018, ISF at VIVA Institute of Technology organized Two day Workshop on Ethical Hacking and Cyber Security by SIDR Solutions and Technologies PVT LTD. It include topics as Introduction to Networking and cyber Security with Real time world applications. The Speaker Mr. Aditya Mathur Director Cyber Security of SIDR Solutions and Technologies PVT LTD talked on Hacking concepts, Scanning Techniques which use nmap, ICMP & UDP Scanning. He described and gave glims to password cracking limitations and password cracking tools. He covered Application security and SQL injection. He also shared some of his recent cases on cyber hacking and real world hacking. Hands on practice was given to students. On 11th September 2018, the speaker Mr. Ramesh Mohite Ex. Police Officer talked on Cyber Crimes and cyber laws, he also shared the career opportunities as a Security Analyst.

Total 100 Students participated in workshop and were enlightened by the Ethical hacking and cyber security.

Inauguration on 10th September 2018

1st Session by Mr. Aditya Mathur- Director Cyber Security

Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering

Valedictory on 11th September 2018

Feedback by Student on Workshop