Step 4

Please enter Aadhaar Enrollment Id (Enrollment Id is of 28 digits):

Whats is Enrolment ID? Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) is a 28 digit numeric character given to the citizens of India who enrol for Aadhaar.

How to Generate EID from Enrolment Number

Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) is a 28 digit numeric character. The format in which the 28 digit Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) has to be entered is EA Code - 4 digit, Station Code - 5 digit, Sequence - 5 digit, YYYYMMDD - 8 digit and HH:MM:SS - 6 digit. The total number of all the above digits will be 28.

In the Print Receipt, the Enrolment number is entered as EA Code/Station Code/Sequence Number and Date is entered as (DDMMYYYY)/Time(HHMMSS). An EID will be generated out of the enrolment number. The application combines the enrolment number as a single number without any spaces and this combined number is called as EID.

The above process is explained clearly with an example:

Unique Identification Authority of India/ भारतीय विधिक पट्टान प्रधिकरण
Government of India/ भारत सरकार

Acknowledgement Slip/ Resident Copy- पावती / निवासी रसीद

Enrolment No./ नागरिकन संख्या: 1234/10480/02615

Date/ तिथि: 02/08/2010 18:07:00

Name, Address and other details

नाम, पता और अन्य विवरण

1. In the Print Receipt, the enrolment number is entered as EA Code(4)/Station Code(5)/Sequence Number(5) and the Date is entered as (DDMMYYYY)(8)/Time(HHMMSS)(8).

2. While generating a EID, the enrolment number and date is combined as single number. All the spaces and slashes will be removed. For the entered enrolment number in the above figure, the EID will be 1234104800261520100802180700.

Note: In EID number, the numbers highlighted with blue colour are changed to YYYYMMDD.

The user has to enter the enrolment number (Enrolment Id +Date Timestamp) and click on continue button to proceed with Registration process.

Step 2

Please enter Aadhaar Enrollment Id (Enrollment Id is of 28 digits):

Whats is Enrolment ID? Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) is a 28 digit numeric character given to the citizens of India who enrol for Aadhaar.

How to Generate EID from Enrolment Number

Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) is a 28 digit numeric character. The format in which the 28 digit Enrolment ID (Enrolment Number) has to be entered is EA Code - 4 digit, Station Code - 5 digit, Sequence - 5 digit, YYYYMMDD - 8 digit and HH:MM:SS - 6 digit. The total number of all the above digits will be 28.

In the Print Receipt, the Enrolment number is entered as EA Code/Station Code/Sequence Number and Date is entered as (DDMMYYYY)/Time(HHMMSS). An EID will be generated out of the enrolment number. The application combines the enrolment number as a single number without any spaces and this combined number is called as EID.

The above process is explained clearly with an example:

Unique Identification Authority of India/ भारतीय विशिष्ट पहचान प्राधिकरण Government of India/ भारत सरकार Acknowledgement Slip/ Resident Copy- पावती / निवासी रसीद
Enrolment No./ नामांकन संख्या:	1234/10480/02615	Date/ तिथि: 02/08/2010 18:07:00
Name, Address and other details	नाम, पता और अन्य विवरण

1. In the Print Receipt, the enrolment number is entered as EA Code(4)/Station Code(5)/Sequence Number(5) and the Date is entered as (DDMMYYYY)(8)/Time(HHMMSS)(8).
 2. While generating a EID, the enrolment number and date is combined as single number. All the spaces and slashes will be removed. For the entered enrolment number in the above figure, the EID will be 1234104800261520100802180700.
 Note: In EID number, the numbers highlighted with blue colour are changed to YYYYMMDD.
