Report on a program “Professional Communication: A Prerequisite for Engineers” organized by the Women Development Cell in association with the Department of Humanities & Applied Sciences, VIVA Institute of Technology.

Women Development Cell in association with the Department of Humanities & Applied Sciences of VIVA Institute of Technology, Virar organized a guest lecture on “Professional Communication: A Prerequisite for Engineers” for all the faculties and students of the college on the eve of International Women’s Day on 8th March 2019. Mrs. Sangeetha Krovvidi, an expert in the domain of soft skills and other employability skills was present as a chief guest to give valuable guidance to faculties and students on professional communication and its need in the job market.

The program began with a welcome note from Dr. Trupti Patil, Asst.Professor of the Dept. of Humanities and Applied Sciences. This was followed by an enlightening speech by the Principal of VIVA Institute of Technology, Dr. Arun Kumar.

The guest session was graced by the presence of the guest speaker Mrs. Sangeetha Krivvidi. Being an expert in professional communication, she shared her expertise with the faculties and students on how they can inculcate soft skills, and professional communication into their personalities.

The session was very interactive as students, as well as faculties, came up with many queries about how to face an interview and various other doubts they have related to professional communication.

The overall lecture was a very delightful and empowering experience for all.
