NSS Viva Institute of Technology SH-17 conducted an event for Awareness on the Flag Code of India. The main motto of this event was to prevent and provide a place of honour for our national flag by creating awareness about it. In this event, all volunteers were provided with points about our flag and its awareness. The awareness was based on various topics such as how and where to keep our flag, how to fold our flag, which kind of flag should be displayed and more such topics were explained by the volunteers. Every volunteer took part actively and did well. The event concluded successfully and everyone participated equally. Moreover volunteers also took pledge to hoist flag from their home under “HAR GHAR TIRANGA” Abhiyan

The Government of India has declared August 23 as National Space Day to celebrate the soft landing of Chandrayaan-3 on the Moon. India has become the fourth nation to achieve this feat and the first to land near the Moon's south pole. The government believes that this mission's success will have long-term benefits for humanity and inspire younger generations to pursue careers in STEM. During space day celebration Nss volunteers prepared various posters based on space theme and awareness and facts regarding Chandrayaan-3 and our space agency ISRO were spread across the campus.
